

TODD BECKER
FOUNDATION

Ministry Career Opportunities

Be a part of a moving ministry and a job that's more than a paycheck.

This is a job that matters
for eternity.

The Todd Becker Foundation, an evangelism youth ministry that puts on outreach events throughout the Midwest, is seeking a reliable and honorable individual to fill a position of: Stage & Production Assistant

Job Description: This person is primarily responsible for the set-up and tear down of the staging and production items associated with the Todd Becker Foundation's weekly outreach events in public high schools across the Midwest. This includes the assistance in setting up and tearing down of speakers, projectors, projector screens, staging, band instruments, lighting, and other items typically associated with a live outreach event. Also, in times while not traveling for outreach events, the job includes building and manufacturing staging items to help improve the operation and functionality of various staging items. This includes, metalworking, welding, woodworking, carpentry, and other skills associated with building stage.

Requirements: A general knowledge in live sound, lighting and staging equipment is a plus, however, all training can be done for this position. In addition, a basic interest or experience in manufacturing, metalworking, welding, woodworking, carpentry, and other skills associated with building/fabricating stage is a major plus. This individual must be a healthy, hard worker with a positive attitude towards life and his or her work. Ultimately, this individual must have a strong desire and passion to serve Christ and His kingdom, as well as have a teachable spirit willing to grow not only in this ministry position, but also in their relationship with the Lord. Also, this individual must enjoy traveling, as this position requires weekly travel across the Midwest.

Wages & Benefits: The position is a paid position. Starting wages are $15.00 to $17.00 per hour, depending on experience and abilities. Benefits include a Base Wage, paid holidays and accumulating paid time off.

How to apply: We ask applicants to first pray and seek God's will for their lives and if He would have them serve with the Todd Becker Foundation. After prayer, applicants that feel God leading them to join the ministry of the Todd Becker Foundation should submit a brief letter and resume via email to: info@toddbecker.org. Applicants are also free and encouraged to contact our ministry office and speak to Keith Becker with any questions or for further information.
